

The Kindergarten Kronicle

March 2010

Edited by: Ms. Thornbury, Mrs. O'Brien and Ms. Parker

Spring is in the air! The weather and nature around us is inspiring a trimester full of Science exploration. This final trimester will be academically challenging while continuing to review learned concepts. Can you believe your child's kindergarten year is coming to a close? How time flies when you are having fun and working hard! Thank you to all parent volunteers for Dr. Seuss Day...what a fun day and such a treat to have guest readers!

March Homework Help: practice counting coins, measurement, read and write CVC words, skip counting by 2s, 5s and 10s, and mental math addition and subtraction word problems.

Exciting dates to remember:

Wednesday, March 17: St. Patrick's Day and Peter and the Wolf at the Singletary Center. Parent drivers; please be at SPPS ready to go at 9:15. Remember; send your child's labeled car seat/booster seat to school. NO CAR SEAT= NO FIELD TRIP FOR YOUR CHILD. This will be an in-uniform day...feel free to wear a bit-'o-green to prevent leprechaun pinches! ☺

Thursday, March 18: The Kindergarten Spring program will be held in the gymnasium. It will begin at 8:30 and then please make plans to come to your child's classroom afterwards for coffee/juice and donuts! This will be an out-of-uniform day. Dress your child in jeans and a bright, Spring-colored shirt. Don't forget your camera! ☺

Friday, March 26: Kindergarten Spring Fling! Walking trip to Gratz Park for a fun-filled afternoon on the day before Spring Break begins. BY THURSDAY, MARCH 25th please bring 12 plastic, individually wrapped, candy-filled eggs and a basket for our kindergarten Easter egg hunt. If you would like to volunteer to hide eggs and spend your afternoon with us, please email your teacher asap!

April 15th and May 6th: Kindergarten will be in charge of Mass. Please mark your calendar to come watch the kindergartners and worship with your child.

May 13th: May Crowning is at St. Peter Church at 9:00 a.m. Please make note of this location as it is different from years past.

***Enjoy the sunshine and have a blessed spring break!***
