This original work has been written by Stephanie Wier, the drama teacher. It is the humorous tale of a father who is fed up with all of the chores he has to do because of Christmas. A Christmas Angel comes to take him on a musical journey through time to see if any other time period was simpler and people knew what the true meaning of Christmas is. Through their journey, they are able to hear music from a song by Marilyn Monroe and Elvis Presley to a rap song from the 80s. This play is sure to put you in the Christmas spirit. The play will be presented as a dinner theatre on Friday and Saturday December 4th and 5th, 2009 at 6:30 p.m. in the SPPS elementary cafeteria. Tickets will be going on sale starting November 2nd. Please see a cast member or call 904-WIER (-9437). Ticket prices for dinner and the show are $18 for adults and $16 for students 13 and under. For premium seating, tickets are $20 for adults and $18 for students 13 and under. Mark your calendars for a wonderful evening to start your holiday season.
